

Keytesville Chautauqua

AUGUST 19-23

A CANADIAN SINGER.

Miss Ada Richardson, one of the leading sopranos of Canada, is a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of music, the musical department of the University of Toronto. She has been soloist in several of the most prominent churches in Toronto, and has achieved notable success on the concert platform in Toronto and other Canadian cities. She is now making a concert tour in this country and will be at our Chautauqua.

Watch out for the live ones when they come around to sell you a season ticket, and, too, there are some live ones--the band boys are on the job boosting this year and you'll have hard work getting away from them. The program will be found on Page 1 of this issue. Get on the job--loosen up and help one of the best shows ever booked for Keytesville.

B. F. Brewer is the power behind the throne this year and Prof. Davis his assistant as secretary-treasurer. From these two men and the band boys you cannot escape.

FAMOUS TRAVELER COMING

Julian B. Arnold is the son of Sir Edwin Arnold, the author of the "Light of Asia," and other notable works. With his gatherr, who occupied many important posts under the British government, he became the intimate friend of the men and women who have made the history of the world during the past fifty years. He has traveled on four continents and lived in twenty-five countries. He helped outfit Sir Henry M. Stanley. He lectures at our Chautauqua on "Palms and Temples."

Judge of Probate.

SALISBURY

The improved appearance of the Chariton Courier last week caused favorable comment here, and if the new editor will come over and get acquainted he will find our people ready to extend the welcome hand.

The shower here Saturday afternoon cooled the air, settled the dust, restored the price of shaves and helped things generally. We are still looking for an airplane, but a street show is on Blessings are not like troubles, for they come singly.

Rev. Mosely preached the sermon at the Union meeting Sunday night. A small crowd was out on account of cars and heat.

W. R. Sweeney and wife are vacationing in South Missouri in their touring car and will be gone several days.

C. A. Freeman of Hamden was in town Monday on business. He is a new man in that community and we were glad to meet him.

Ben Matthews and wife of Forest Green were here Monday.

The street shows opened here Monday and will run all week. They are located near the depot. J. B. Armstrong of Mexico, Mo., Sundayed here.

We learn the Patterson property on West 2nd street, occupied by B. I. Davis, has been sold to B. F. Davis, possession to be given in December when the lease expires.

Houses for rent are in great demand here, but as scarce as hen's teeth.

Blackberries are about all gone and the hot weather has dried up what few are left.

A. T. Haberly sold Arthur Hayes lot 8 in block 2, Williams addition to Salisbury.

Bunking parties are the "go" here among the girls. Next thing look for ghosts.

Rev. J. P. Rice was called to Keytesville Monday afternoon to preach the funeral sermon of Mrs. Sarah Halley.

A. S. Rucker and family will locate in California and expect to start in a few days. They will make the trip on the train. Mrs. J. H. Trent is on the sick list.

Lee Craven is reported to be recovering from his illness.

Mrs. Gallemore is about the same, and recovery seems slow.

Mrs. N. S. Hallock and children have returned to their home in Sedalia.

Repairs on the front of the Savings Bank building have been completed and the same greatly improves the appearance.

What is a specific for grass chiggers?

Mrs. Dollie Adams and daughter have returned to Council Bluffs.

L. T. Atterberry and wife are on a visit to the northern part of the county.

Maddox Garage

The old Garage known as the Dameron Garage was purchased by me, John Willis Maddox, Tuesday of this week. This garage is well equipped for general automobile repair work. I shall carry a full line of automobile accessories and will also keep gasoline, oils, etc., to supply the trade. Give me a share of your work and I will guarantee satisfaction. I have had several years experience in repair work and feel competent to handle any line of repair work that will be turned my way.
